

Camp Rules

To ensure safety and a pleasant coexistence in a camp, it needs rules. Here are the most important ones

It is advisable to adapt and reword the rules to the situation and record them in the stock booklet.

E.G.: In Noah's time there were no cell phones, therefore they remain unseen and unheard.

General rules

- Addictive substances (alcohol, tobacco, etc.) are strictly forbidden during the camp!
- Boys have nothing to do with the girls and vice versa!
- Mobile phones remain unseen and unheard!
- Listen to your leaders and do what they say!
- Nature must not be damaged or destroyed!
- Material will only be given out by the leaders.
- Broken material will be reported to the leaders.
- At night (from 22:00 to 07:00) we keep quiet.
- Waste will be thrown into the waste bin.

Optional

- Brush your teeth at least once a day!
- Energy drinks are unsuitable for children and remain invisible.

Additional rules at camp

- For the protection of our feet we all wear shoes!
- The campground will only be left with the permission or accompaniment of a leader!
- To do one's business, the toilets must be used. (Applies especially to boys!)

Additional rules at house camp

- The house is only entered with slippers!

Other

- Do not go on and into the stream without a ladder!

Image credits

- Title image: Provided by ML3000. (ml.3000 (at) hotmail.com)