

The submarine

As they search for the rescue submarine, everyone is in the dark. Yet it's in the middle of the ocean, acting all calm while everyone else searches excitedly.

A fun icebreaker where there is no loser.

Framework conditions

- Group size: from 8 people
- Location: preferably in one room - beware of tripping hazards!
- Time: 5-10 minutes

Materials needed

- Eye pads

Performance

All players are blindfolded. (Simply closing your eyes will work in a pinch)

The game leader secretly designates one to be the sub. (He can take the blindfold off again).

The game starts

The game starts and everyone sets off in search of the saving submarine, Everyone they meet they ask : "Submarine?". If the other answers with the same question it is clear that it is not the submarine.

The selected player, who is the submarine, acts very calm. When he is found, he does not give an answer. The fish stays with him and together they now form a larger submarine - the blindfolds are removed.

The game is over when everyone has found the submarine.

Image credits

- Cover: CarolES