Ball in the cup

Age of players
From 8 years old

Number of players
Starting with 8

Description
Players are each given an empty yogurt cup. The leader puts the tennis ball in the cup and throws it to a player. The ball may not be touched with the hand, but must be both thrown and caught with the cup only. It is also not allowed to fall on the ground. Thus, the ball circulates in an undetermined order from player to player.

After a period of getting used to the game, successful balls can be counted and the players can strive to set a new record.
