Competencies

All decisions necessary to accomplish the task and to ensure orderly operations. In consultation with the department head/advisory committee, the following decisions are to be made:

- Annual goals
- Starting new evangelistic forms, such as open ministry, etc.
- Structural issues - transition issues (overall coordination)
- Inquiry of new staff and their installation
- Exclusion of employees
- Dates of JS occasions
- Financial decisions that exceed the JS budget
- Decisions of major importance
- Retirement and succession issues

Continuing education

- Attend at least basic BESJ course
- Attendance at advanced course and camp courses desired.
- A contribution towards expenses can be requested from the church leadership.

Information path

- Inform the person in charge of the department regularly about important decisions and difficulties
- Pass on prayer requests to prayer circles or special prayer leaders from the congregation.
- Communicate appointments and long-range planning to the staff team in a timely manner.
- At one congregational meeting per year, spend 5-10 minutes giving a brief review and outlook, as well as introducing the team.

Cash

- Designate a treasurer for the separate young people's account.
- Submitting the annual accounts for the attention of the leadership team and the congregational meeting (may be delegated).

Resignation and replacement

- If a principal leader wishes to hand over his or her responsible role to a successor, he or she must announce this to the head of department / circle of advisors at least 3 months before resigning, without having already requested or appointed a successor.

- A successor should be able to be inducted into office. Therefore, the main leader of the church leadership proposes a suitable person in time, which is then requested after consultation by the church leadership.
