

Giant marble run

A giant marble run is an afternoon activity that encourages creativity and collaboration.

Material

- Empty toilet rolls
- Cardboard
- Paper
- Tape
- Marbles
- ...

Procedure

The participants are divided into different groups. Each of these groups builds a part of the giant marble run. There is no limit to their imagination (for example, loops can be built in). At the end, the entire marble run is tested.

Location

The marble run can be well built in a staircase in bad weather. In dry weather, a giant marble run can also be built on a hillside or in the woods.

Variations

Each group can build their own marble run. At the end, it is evaluated which one works best, what creative elements are present, ...
