Hindersi stash

A slightly different game of hide and seek.

Material

- a rattle
- or a bell
- or anything else that tones

Gameplay

Someone goes to hide with the rattle while all the other participants wait in a room. As they do so, they count to 30.

||

When they get to 30, they start looking for the person with the rattle. While they are looking, the person who was hiding should keep making noises with the rattle.

||

Once someone has found the person who was hiding, they quietly go into hiding as well.

||

Thus, there are fewer and fewer who are searching until everyone has found the hiding place.
