

Typical behavior in groups

In a group, people take different roles according to their character.

Different characters in groups

In a group, you are always dealing with different kinds of people. They take different roles in a group according to their character.

Here are schematically simplified, the following typical behaviors.

- The storyteller
- The shy
- The Rejector
- The Initiative
- The pious
- The depressed

See PDF file

for details

Typical behaviors

Source credits:

Author: Sämi Jakob