Boom!

Bumm! is a concentration game in which you have to count.

Game data

- Age: from 8 years
- Number of players: 3+
- Leader: 1
- Material: none required

Game procedure

Everyone sits in a circle. You slap your knees or hands to the beat. You then count up in sequence to the beat.

That alone would be boring, so you are not allowed to say any number that is divisible by 7 or has a digit with 7. Instead, you say "Boom"!

Variation

Of course, the number 7 can also be replaced by any other number and any word can be used instead of "Bumm", e.g. "Hugo".
