Sharing- A life without sickness and torment awaits us in heaven

A life without sickness and torment awaits us in heaven!

Prepared by

Introduction:

Is there a country you dream of visiting?

You've read and heard many good things about it, but you've never been there.

How can you be sure it's really worth visiting, is it really that beautiful.

I am from Switzerland. Maybe you've heard very nice things about it, but is it. I can tell you if there's really gold on the road or if there's junk on the road or other nice things.

Heaven is such a place. A very nice place. Except that none of us have been there and can verify ahead of time how it is.

Game. In the courtyard you will find pictures from Switzerland. When you find one, you can go to "Switzerland" to check. If you find the same picture there, you can keep both.

There are also pictures that show what is in the sky and others that show what is not. When you find a picture of them you will come back here. But since no one has been to heaven and we can't just go check, we have to ask someone who has been there or comes from there. Who is that?

Jesus told his disciples and an angel showed the apostle John. We can read this in the Bible. With these cards you will go to "head ....." and check. If what is on the card has it in heaven you will find another like it, if it is not there will only be one.

Get the cards always with the pocket!

What is the best country for you? Or where is the best place for you?

Where there are gardens, trees, animals, flowers and where it is tidy. Where there is good food, where..

Heaven where God is is more beautiful than we can imagine. There are no words to describe it.

We understood from the story that Terry wanted to know how it was there. And who could go there.

Let's figure out the first question first.

1.How is heaven:

There will be	There will be
Death	Eternal life
Wailing, wailing	Holiness,
Tearing, weeping	Joy
Pain, sickness	Health
Hunger	No need for food
Darkness, night	Always day
Sun	God Himself is the light
Nothing pure	Only those written in the Lamb's book of life

2.Who can go?

Verse from Sisi.

Rejoice because your names are written in heaven. Luke10:20

Who wrote me in this book and how?

The subject fromlast time.

Everyone needs repentance. There isn't a persongood enough to enterwithout repentance and there isn't a person too badwho can'tbe forgiven .

Ursula painted what there is in the life ofone who has rep entedand in the life of one who has not.

Hewhohas repented becomes a lamb of the Good Shepherd and so will be of his flock. Saved in the book of life of the lamb. Revelation 22:27

Jesus has prepared a place in heaven for his children. Adwelling place, apartment or house

And Jesus will return to take us there. John 14:2-3

Where is "home"?

Where you are comfortable, pleasant, where you feel safe. We are from Switzerland, but when you ask Nathanael where is home. What will he say?

I say I have 3 places I can call home. Where I was born, here in Bulgaria and in heaven where I will go to be with God for eternity. I am convinced there is no better or better place. As a little child I often prayed like this: if Jesus is coming tonight, let Him take me to Him in heaven.

I became a teenager and pondered and did the math if I really wanted to follow Jesus at every precious. Even if there were difficulties because of the decision? And I told myself that what I expect with Jesus is totally worth it and whatever it costs me and whatever sacrifice is asked of me.
