A method of earning the Jungschar stars in the form of a competition.

Competition

- It can be supplemented/modified as desired with insiders or with a review of your own semester.
- There are many Stenli questions and tasks.
- Takes a lot of time if you want to do them all.
- Material should be provided in advance.

Goal

The team with more points wins.

Procedure

Once the groups have been divided up, the first group starts and selects the category and level of difficulty.
