The Bible Has 66 Books

The song "The Bible Has 66 Books" is a fun and accessible way to memorize the books of the Bible while maintaining the correct chronological order.

Song Lyrics

The Bible has 66 books

I know all these books well

They speak of God and my Lord

They speak of everything dear to me

Moses has five books of his own

Joshua, Judges, Ruth, 1 and 2 Samuel

The two Books of Kings, 1 and 2 Chronicles

Ezra, Nehemiah, and Esther, too

The Book of Job, the Book of Psalms

Proverbs and Ecclesiastes as well

The Song of Songs, Isaiah, and Jeremiah

Lamentations, Ezekiel, Daniel, and Hosea

Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, and Micah

Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai

Zechariah and Malachi, the Four Gospels,

Acts of the Apostles, the Epistle to the Romans

1 Corinthians, 2 Corinthians,

Galatians, Ephesians, and Philippians

Ephesians, Colossians, and 2 Thessalonians

Two Letters to Timothy

Titus, Philemon,

The Letter to the Hebrews and the Letter of James

Then the Epistles of Peter, one and two,

the three letters of John, Jude, and Revelation.

Learning

One way to teach a group a song is to place the lyrics in a visible spot and sing through it a few times. Then you can cover up a few book titles and try singing it again. You can then cover up a few more books, and so on, until the song has to be sung entirely from memory.

This method works best when used over the course of several days, such as at camp.
