even more "Wetten dass" games with SUGUS bet

Note:

"Wetten dass" can actually be interrupted after each round, so it shouldn't be a problem to schedule devotions, Zvieri and other things in the afternoon.

Description: The Jungscharler (JS) are all together in a group and two Jungscharler are chosen as players each. These two must compete against each other in a game (skill game or similar, see below).

With SUGUS bet

Before such a game takes place, bets can be placed in each case: In doing so, a betting office is run by the Jungschi leaders. The units of currency are, for example, SUGUS. The JS can bet a number of SUGUS on one of the two players, must enter this on a betting sheet and deliver the bet SUGUS to the betting office. If the correct player wins, the JS are returned double the SUGUS amount paid in. However, if that player loses, the SUGUS wagered is also lost.

The starting stake is 8 to 10 SUGUS per JS. The two players must bet on themselves if they want to bet. Otherwise, they might lose on purpose to win their bet!

The betting office may grant a small SUGUS credit to some unlucky players, which must be paid back if they win.

Total number of SUGUS: 2'000 pieces (resp. approx. 5 kg) ? ? ? Winning withdrawal + deposit for next game: simultaneously!
